

The Fate of Fairy Tale Heroes: The Future With 'Will'

TASK A. "Little Red Riding Hood"

First, read the classic fairy tale. Then complete the new story with verbs in the future. Use 'will.'

Classic fairy tale:

Little Red Riding Hood walks alone through the woods to visit her grandmother. Along the way, she meets a wolf. The clever wolf learns the girl's plans. He arrives at the grandmother's house before the girl, eats the grandmother, and then takes the old woman's place in bed. When Little Red Riding Hood arrives, she slowly understands that her "granny" looks different. The wolf then tries to eat her.

New story:

1. Little Red Riding Hood is now smarter. This time the wolf _____ (see) her in the woods, but she _____ (not tell) him about her plans.
2. The grandmother is now stronger. This time the wolf _____ (try) to eat the grandmother, but the woman _____ (fight).
3. The grandmother _____ (scare) the wolf, and the wolf _____ (run away).
4. Little Red Riding Hood and her grandmother _____ (enjoy) tea and cookies together. They _____ (talk and laugh) about the wolf.

After this, will the wolf become smarter? What will he do the next time?

The Fate of Fairy Tale Heroes: The Future With 'Will'

TASK B. "Goldilocks and the Three Bears"

First, read the classic fairy tale. Then complete the new story with verbs in the future. Use 'will.'

Classic fairy tale:

A bear family plans to eat hot cereal. It's too hot, so the whole family goes out to take a walk. Papa Bear, Mama Bear, and Baby Bear leave. No one is home. Goldilocks finds the house and goes in. She tries all the chairs, tries all the bowls of cereal, and then tries the different beds. She likes Baby Bear's chair, cereal, and bed best. She falls asleep in Baby Bear's bed. The bear family comes home, and they're upset to find the girl in their house.

New tale:

1. The bear family is smarter now. They _____ (not leave) their door open. They _____ (lock) their front door.
2. Goldilocks is much worse. She _____ (break) the lock on the door. She _____ (call and invite) friends to come.
3. The bear family is not as understanding as before. They _____ (find) the girl and her friends in their home, and _____ (call) the police.
4. Goldilocks _____ (get) in trouble. The bear family _____ (ask) her to pay for everything.

After this, will Goldilocks become smarter? What will she do the next time?
